Credit/Time Requirement: Credit: 0; Lecture: 0; Lab: 0

Clock/Hour Requirements: 0

Offered for Non-Credit: No

Prerequisites: None

Corequisites: None

Justification:

This course will provide students with exposure to a variety of performance styles. Courses like this are offered on most other campuses with NASM accredited programs. They range from 0 credit hours to 1 credit hour and require students to attend a certain number of concerts each semester as part of the music major.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Students will gain an appreciation and understanding of different musical genres and performance practices.

Content:

Students will attend ten(10) concerts and recital of various artists, students, and ensembles.

General Education Outcomes:

5) Apply a cultural and historical awareness to a variety of phenomena.

The students will gain both cultural and historical awareness of music through attending concerts and recitals. The experience this offers will enable students to better understand music of all types and genres. This will give them perspective they can share as educators and/or performers.

Key Performance Indicators:

Students will be required to submit their programs from each concert and/or recital to the faculty member overseeing this program.

Representative Text and/or Supplies:

None
