

MUSC 3336

Division: Fine Arts

Department: Music

Course: MUSC 3336

Title: Percussion Ensemble, Third Year

Catalog Description:

Students will gain ensemble experience on a variety of percussion instruments. Available only to music majors who are pursuing the B. Mus. degree or by permission of instructor. Audition required. This course may be repeated for credit.

General Education Requirements: N/A

Semesters Offered: Fall, Spring

Credit/Time Requirement: Credit: 1; Lecture: 1; Lab: 0

Clock/Hour Requirements: 0

Offered for Non-Credit: No

Prerequisites: Admittance into B. MUS program or permission of instructor. Audition required.

Corequisites: None

Justification:

This course will provide students with opportunities to explore and experience standard percussion ensemble literature. Courses like this are taught at all NASM accredited institutions both in the state and across the country. This is similar to brass chamber, woodwind chamber, and string chamber music courses.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of each semester of this course, students will be able to:

- use correct sticking and hand techniques on a variety of instruments;
- accurately perform the rhythms, melodies and harmonies of the music selected by the director;
- perform essential skills as part of a section, including, proper intonation blend and balance;
- show improvement in both speed and accuracy of literature learning as measured by small group assessment;
- understand the music in its historical setting as well as the stylistic, expressive, and formal qualities associated with the particular era of music history;
- communicate the understanding which they have gained to their audiences.

Content:

MUSC 3336

Students will learn the standard percussion ensemble literature from the contemporary era. In addition, students will be taught correct sticking and hand techniques on a variety of percussion instruments. They will also learn a variety of styles of music including:

- African;
- Afro-Cuban;
- Jazz; Brazilian;
- and other South American styles.

General Education Outcomes:

5) Apply a cultural and historical awareness to a variety of phenomena.

Students will gain a greater understanding of music of other world cultures. This will broaden their awareness and abilities to respond to these different cultures in positive ways. Students will receive ongoing feedback from the instructor throughout the rehearsal process.

9) Respond with informed sensitivity to an artistic work or experience.

Students will be able to respond more sensitively to a greater spectrum of artistic works because of their first-hand experiences with the musical works offered in this course.

Key Performance Indicators:

Students in instrumental music performance courses are assessed in the following ways:

- Participation Rates - Attendance at class sessions;
- Written Assignments: Practice Logs;
- Presentation/Performance ? sectional rehearsal participation and performance;
- Presentation/Performance - Concert participation and performance;
- Group Project - Participation in concert recording review and critique;

Representative Text and/or Supplies:

Literature is taken from the Snow College score library.

Optimum Class Size: 15

Maximum Class Size: 15

Signatures:

I hereby submit this course syllabus:

Steve Meredith, DMA, Associate Professor

I hereby find this course consistent with the goals and resources of the Music Department:

Steve Meredith, DMA, Associate Professor, Chair

I hereby find this course consistent with the goals and resources of the Fine Arts Division:

Vance Larsen, MM, Associate Professor, Dean

I have discussed the need for library resources related to this class with the person submitting the syllabus:

Lynn Anderson, MLIS, Technical Services Librarian (Main Campus)

Michelle Olsen, MLS, Campus Librarian (Richfield Campus)