

PE 2010

Division: Social and Behavioral Science

Department: Physical Education

Course: PE 2010

Title: Introduction to Physical Education

Catalog Description:

Any student seeking a career in Physical Education and related areas should take this course. Required for Physical Education Majors. We study the history of Physical Education in America, sports in society, job opportunities in various sporting careers, and psychology of sport.

General Education Requirements: N/A

Semesters Offered: Fall

Credit/Time Requirement: Credit: 3; Lecture: 3; Lab: 0

Clock/Hour Requirements: 0

Offered for Non-Credit: No

Justification:

Most colleges and universities offer an introduction to Physical Education. It is required of Physical Education majors and is also informative for future coaches and parents.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Students will understand the history of Physical Education in America.

Students will be aware of the various career possible in Physical Education.

Students will understand the roles palyed by sports in America.

Students will develop career goals.

Students will model appropriate interactions between coaches, parents, and athletes.

Content:

Guest lectures on teaching, coaching, recreation, intra-murals, administration, broadcasting, professional sports, etc.

Oral report by each student on a possible career choice.

Preparation for certification as a high school coach.

General Education Outcomes:

Key Performance Indicators:

Oral and written evaluations of guest speakers.

Quizzes on historical information.

Evaluation of peers and their reports.

Representative Text and/or Supplies:

Optimum Class Size: 40

Maximum Class Size: 40

Signatures:

I hereby submit this course syllabus:

Elliot Anderson, ,

I hereby find this course consistent with the goals and resources of the Physical Education Department:

Bob Trythall, MS, Associate Professor, Chair

I hereby find this course consistent with the goals and resources of the Social and Behavioral Science Division:

Sue Dalley, M.S., Associate Professor, Dean

I have discussed the need for library resources related to this class with the person submitting the syllabus:

Lynn Anderson, MLIS, Technical Services Librarian (Main Campus)

Michelle Olsen, MLS, Campus Librarian (Richfield Campus)