

THEA 2901

Division: Fine Arts

Department: Theater Arts

Course: THEA 2901

Title: Theatre Capstone

Catalog Description:

This course provides students the opportunity to demonstrate mastery of the concepts and skills necessary for continuation in their field of study in the arts. The course is project-based; students will propose and complete projects designed to show their abilities and present these in a public forum, either live or online. Examples of these projects might include solo performances, audio or video recording of works, or the preparation of an online portfolio. In addition to completing the project, students will learn the skills necessary to present the project, including the necessary computer, print, design, and marketing skills necessary to present their materials to the public.

General Education Requirements: N/A

Semesters Offered: TBA

Credit/Time Requirement: Credit: 2; Lecture: 2; Lab: 1

Clock/Hour Requirements: 0

Offered for Non-Credit: No

Prerequisites: Permission of Instructor

Justification:

As theatre students prepare to leave Snow College they are faced with a number of choices, including the decision between seeking additional education or entrance into the workplace. Whatever the choice, a prospective employer or transfer institution will require that students be able to demonstrate the skills acquired during their study at Snow. This course is designed to help students gather materials that show what skills and knowledge they have mastered, and to compile, edit and prepare to present these materials using a variety of traditional and electronic methods. Similar courses exist in other disciplines at Snow College. This course will transfer as elective credit.

Student Learning Outcomes:

To successfully complete this course, students will:

- develop a portfolio that shows skills mastered at Snow College
- present their portfolio/performance in classroom and public presentations
- develop the skills necessary to make their presentation, including computer portfolio development skills
- meet with professionals in the field and/or advisers in their discipline from transfer institutions
- work with other students and faculty to gather, compile and edit materials for portfolios or performances

Students will receive feedback from faculty, fellow students and visiting professionals during in-class presentations.

Content:

Students will learn the necessary skills to put together a final project, including:

- Traditional presentation options: print, live presentation
- Electronic presentation options: Powerpoint, video, online
- Review of employment and transfer options
- Contacting prospective employers or key personnel at transfer institutions
- Gathering and editing materials

General Education Outcomes:

9) Respond with informed sensitivity to an artistic work or experience.

Students will show informed sensitivity as they propose, create and demonstrate their portfolio or project, and through the criteria they use to edit their work to make it ready for public display. Students will receive feedback from their instructor throughout the proposal, creation and demonstration process.

Key Performance Indicators:

Students will be graded in the following way (percentages are approximate):

35% Attendance at class meetings

35% Quality of final project/portfolio/performance

30% Presentation of project/portfolio/performance in a designated public showing

Representative Text and/or Supplies:

As the course is project based, no text is required. Instructor will provide in-class materials.

Optimum Class Size: 13

Maximum Class Size: 15

Signatures:

I hereby submit this course syllabus:

Brad Olsen, MFA, Associate Professor

I hereby find this course consistent with the goals and resources of the Theater Arts Department:

Kim Christison, PhD, Professor, Chair

I hereby find this course consistent with the goals and resources of the Fine Arts Division:

Vance Larsen, MM, Associate Professor, Dean

I have discussed the need for library resources related to this class with the person submitting the syllabus:

Lynn Anderson, MLIS, Technical Services Librarian (Main Campus)

Michelle Olsen, MLS, Campus Librarian (Richfield Campus)