- 2.30. Transaction: A formal or informal contract or agreement, expressed or implied, to which the College is a party that involves any transfer of consideration or payment of compensation.

3.0 POLICY

- 3.1. The Director of Purchasing Services, is the Chief Procurement Officer for the College, and has authority over all procurements.
- 3.2. All goods and services purchased by the College shall be procured in compliance with applicable statutes, rules, guidelines, policies and procedures, regardless of the funding source, including state appropriations, federal appropriations, generated income, or funds from gifts, grants, and contracts.
- 3.3. Purchasing Services oversees the procurement of all goods and services required by the College and all its divisions and departments. Purchasing Services provides assistance and advice regarding all procurement needs of the College; and establishes operating processes that ensure 1) adequate access to goods and services, consistent with legal, budgetary, and delivery

- requirements; 2) timely and economical acquisition of goods and services; and 3) compliance with all applicable statutes, rules, policies, procedures, and guidelines during the procurement process.
- 3.4. College Employee involved in a procurement process, must act in accordance with College and State Code of Ethics and the ethical standards outlined in the Utah Procurement Code (63G-6a-101, et seq.) and must exercise prudent judgement to ensure that the commitment of funds is appropriate and justified for College operations. Individuals who do not comply with College policy when placing procurement orders may become personally liable to the vendor for the price of their order and may be subject to disciplinary action.
  - 3.5. As a Utah State Institution of Higher Education, the College must ensure that all College funds are used only to support appropriate College purposes and not purchases of a personal nature. When the expenditure is funded by a grant or contract, the use of such funds will be governed by the most restrictive conditions of the grant, contract, and College policy.
  - 3.6. Expenditures for compensation as defined by IRS code and/or Utah State Code are covered and must adhere to College policies, procedures, and guidelines.
  - 3.7. College funds expended by non-college organizations and component units will be in accordance with College policy, procedures, guidelines, and practices.
  - 3.8. Procurement activities shall be performed independent of any fund-raising endeavors of the College.
  - 3.9. Authorized operating units shall comply with all applicable College policies and procedures and use the same sound business practices when purchasing as those followed by Purchasing Services. Other operating units may be extended similar procurement exceptions at the discretion of the Director of Purchasing Services.
  - 3.10. By virtue of its unique service obligation and needs, Custom Fit Training program is authorized to solicit bids above the normal bid limits allowed for divisions and departments, but with a maximum limit established, in writing, by the Director of Purchasing Services, and in keeping with all written policies.
  - 3.11. Advance payments may not be made, except in certain cases as determined appropriate by a Purchasing Agent for the College.
  - 3.12. Advance payments above $5,000, that are determined appropriate by a College Purchasing Agent, are required to have a bond or other approved form of guarantee.

- 3.13. Purchasing Services establishes, with the approval of the Board of Trustees, a maximum small-dollar purchase limit. Purchasing Services establishes procedures to govern purchases under this limit, in conformity with the Utah Procurement Code.
- 3.14. Under the Utah Procurement Code Annotated, sections 63G-6a-101 et seq , it is illegal to divide, split, parcel, or otherwise manipulate a purchase into two or more smaller purchases with the intent of circumventing procurement code, policies, procedures, and purchasing card policies.
- 3.15. Criminal Penalties for illegal transactions, including felony and misdemeanor charges, and dismissal from employment will apply to individual(s) involved, as outlined in the Utah State Procurement Code (63G-6a-2304.5, 2305, 306).
- 3.16. A purchase may not be divided, split, parceled or manipulated over a period of time with the intent to use the policy for small dollar purchase of goods or services.
- 3.17. An invoice shall not be divided into multiple invoices of smaller amounts with the intent of making a larger purchase appear to be a small dollar purchase.
