- Bad Year for Tomatoes: By John Patrick, Director - Brad Olsen, April 7-10 8:00 pm Admission: Adults $7, Seniors/18 & under $6, SC students w/activity card $2. Fed up with the pressures and demands of her acting career, the famous Myra Marlowe leases a house in the tiny New England hamlet of Beaver Haven and settles down to write her autobiography. But dealing with her nosy, omnipresent neighbors requires Myra to invent a mad, homicidal sister to scare off uninvited visitors. Complications result which brings on the sheriff and the suspicion of murder! Needless to say, all is straightened out in the end, but the uproarious doings are non-stop until the final curtain.
- Jazz Combo Concert: Tuesday, April 13th, 7:30 pm. This concert will feature small ensembles under the direction of jazz director James Burton III and bass faculty Denson Angelo. It will feature the music of saxophone legends John Coltrane and Benny Golson, as well as songs from the great American songbook and traditional music from the city of New Orleans. (Free)
