 Nov. 16-19, 2011 Admission: $7.50 Adults | $6.50 Seniors/5-18 yrs. | SC students $2
 Struggling artist Brindsley Miller and his fiancée Carol are having a party with the aim of impressing Carol’s bombastic father, Colonel Melkett, and his millionaire friend. They have borrowed (without permission) the furniture and effects of a neighbor, the fussy Harold Gorrige, to make the flat more presentable. Before the guests arrive the main fuse blows, plunging the flat into darkness; only we, the audience, can see what is happening. A collection of colorful characters arrives including Brindsley’s true love, the caustic and willful Clea. Brindsley must return Harold’s furniture before the lights are restored, and keep Carol and the other guests in the dark about Clea’s arrival.
- Jazz I Concert: On Monday, Nov. 21st, the Snow College Jazz Ensemble I will be presenting an electrifying evening of music featuring the works of Dizzy Gillespie. The evening will also feature guest soloist, trumpeter, Brandon Lee. This night of music will be exciting, as the Snow College Jazz Ensemble I capture the pop and sizzle of one of the most innovative musicians in jazz.
 Admission: $6 Adults | $5 Seniors/18 & under | Snow College students free w/ID
- Orchestra Concert: Come join us for an evening of light classics performed by the Snow College Symphony and Chamber Orchestras on Wednesday, November 30th at 7:30 PM in the Jorgensen Concert Hall. The concert will include the well-known works Palladio by Karl Jenkins (music from the De Beers diamond television commercials), Danse Macabre by Camille Saint-Saens, Hector Berlioz’s Hungarian March, and Tchaikovsky’s Serenade for Strings. We will conclude the evening with some Christmas music that is sure to brighten your Holiday Season.
 Admission: $6 Adults | $5 Seniors/18 & under | Snow College students free w/ID
